Terms of Use for Term CORRA

PLEASE READ THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS CAREFULLY BEFORE ACCESSING OR USING TERM CORRA

These Terms of Use for the benchmark referred to here as “Term CORRA” (which as published on this website is a T+1 historical calculation of this benchmark, and the term “Term CORRA” as used herein means Term CORRA (T+1)) set out the terms and conditions pursuant to which you and the organization(s) you represent (together “you”) may access and use Term CORRA which you access at this website on and after July 4, 2023. As used herein, the term “Term CORRA” also includes without limitation the applicable permitted uses published by CanDeal (as defined below) on its website and updated by CanDeal from time to time.

Term CORRA is calculated, administered and made available by CanDeal Benchmark Administration Services Inc. (“CanDeal”, “we”, “us” or “our”). You represent and warrant that you (including the organization that you represent) have the capacity to form a binding contract with us under these Terms.

The provision of Term CORRA does not constitute legal, financial, professional, or other advice.

The Term CORRA rates released, as of July 5, 2023, are a beta version of Term CORRA which are undergoing final testing before the official release on or about September 2023. They have no commercial purpose and may not be used for any commercial purpose whatsoever.

If you wish to use the version of the Term CORRA benchmark that is published on this website for any other purpose whatsoever, or if you wish to use a real time or same day version of the Term CORRA benchmark, you will require a licence from TMX Datalinx, the information services division of TSX. You may contact TMX Datalinx regarding a licence at marketdata@tmx.com.

You may not change or modify or create any derivative works based on or derived from Term CORRA and you may not distribute, redistribute, or otherwise make available Term CORRA to any third person.

Term CORRA is provided “as is”. None of CanDeal, TSX, their respective affiliates, nor any of their or their affiliates’ directors, officers, employees or agents (collectively the “Disclaiming Parties”) makes any warranty, condition, guarantee or representation, express or implied, with respect to Term CORRA or the results to be obtained by any use of Term CORRA, and all such terms are expressly disclaimed. Each Disclaiming Party expressly disclaims all warranties and conditions of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose or use, satisfactory quality and non- infringement with respect to Term CORRA. No Disclaiming Party shall be liable in respect of the accuracy or the completeness of Term CORRA and none of the Disclaiming Parties shall have any liability for any errors, omissions, delays or interruptions in providing Term CORRA.

No Disclaiming Party shall be responsible or liable for any loss, cost, liability, claim, interest, fine, penalty, assessment, taxes, damages available at law or in equity, expense costs, fees and expenses of legal counsel or diminution in value that you or any other person (including, without limitation, anybody accessing Term CORRA through you) suffers or incurs as a result of your or such person’s use of or reliance on Term CORRA (including, without limitation, as a result of decisions relating to the sale or purchase of instruments or legal, compliance or risk management decisions), whether arising in contract, tort (including negligence), strict liability, breach of statutory duty, contribution or otherwise. Without limiting any of the foregoing, in no event shall any Disclaiming Party have any liability for any loss of profit, loss of or anticipated loss of revenue, loss of use, business interruption, loss of use of any equipment, loss of any contract or other business opportunity or goodwill or indirect, punitive, special, incidental, consequential or exemplary damages, even if advised of the possibility of such losses or damages and whether such losses or damages otherwise would have been foreseeable.

TSX, its respective affiliates, and any of its or its affiliates' directors, officers, employees or agents are express third-party beneficiaries of, and will have the right to enforce on its own behalf, all of the terms set out herein.
